For personal reasons, I am looking for new options for my well-running coffee roasting plant in NRW - Rhine/Ruhr. Shop in the middle of a shopping street in the most affluent city in the region. (Location does not want to publish here, gladly in personal exchange.) The equipment is good: Giessen drum roaster, 2 portafilter machines, mobile sales stand, online shop and much more. I ran it as a sideline and that would continue to be possible. The employees manage the company very responsibly. I am looking forward to your inquiries. I am therefore looking for someone who wants to enter the business or take over completely.
