Caterer

For reasons of age, I sell a party service/piglet roastery that has been established for almost 26 years with a unique selling point, a good customer base and expandable in all directions.

There is a main store, a branch and a pick-up point.

All this does not require a lot of staff. Long-standing suppliers and supermarkets are in the immediate vicinity. Two vans and a young company car are available. IT. and cash register new.

The party service is structured systematically and is easy to learn for career changers. Ideally suited as a family business.

Training time is guaranteed.

Do you want to earn money right away? Then you've come to the right place.

I look forward to meeting YOU.
