Tax advisor

For a tax consulting firm located in the west of Upper Austria, we are looking for a branch manager or partner (with or without an investment option). The firm has been in existence for decades, is well established regionally and serves around 250 clients. In addition to the owner, 4.5 employees (accounting, payroll, administration) are employed on a full-time equivalence basis. At the moment, no new clients can be accepted – so there is rapid growth potential in the future (with more resources).

If an investment is desired, it will be offered at extraordinarily good conditions with a purchase price of around 50% of the sustainable turnover. The amount of participation is variable, can be increased and is determined in a personal interview. The desired scenario and the milestones (transfer of shares) are defined and determined before the start of the partnership. On request, the 1.
